Te Tari Ture o te Karauna Crown Law

Public Service Act ko te pūtake o ngā Kaimahi Kāwanatanga, ko te tautoko i te kāwanatanga whai ture me te kāwanatanga manapori; ko te āwhina i te Kāwanatanga o te wā nei me ō anamata ki te whakawhanake, ki te whakatinana hoki i ā rātou kaupapa here; ko te tuku i ngā ratonga tūmatanui e nui ana te kounga, e nahanaha ana anō hoki; ko te tautoko i te Kāwanatanga e tūroa ai te whai oranga o te marea; ko te huawaere i te whai wāhitanga o te kirirarau ki te ao tūmatanui me te whakatutuki i ngā mahi i runga i tā te ture i whakahau ai. E hiranga ana te wāhi ki a mātou ki te tautoko i te Karauna i ana hononga ki ngā iwi Māori i raro i te Tiriti o Waitangi. Ahakoa he nui ngā momo tūranga mahi, e tapatahi ana ngā kaimahi tūmatanui i roto i te whakaaro nui ki te hāpai i ngā hāpori, ka mutu, e arahina ana ā mātou mahi e ngā mātāpono matua me ngā uara o ngā Kaimahi Tūmatanui.

The Public Service works collectively to make a meaningful difference for New Zealanders. The Public Service Act states that the purpose of the Public Service is to support constitutional and democratic government, enable both the current Government and successive governments to develop and implement their policies, deliver high-quality and efficient public services, support the Government to pursue the long-term public interest, facilitate active citizenship and act in accordance with the law. We have an important role in supporting the Crown in its relationships with Māori under the Treaty of Waitangi and te Tiriti o Waitangi. Whilst there are many diverse roles, all public servants are unified by a spirit of service to the community, and guided by the core principles and values of the Public Service in our work.

Mō te Tūranga | About the Role

Crown Law plays a critical role in Public Prosecutions, which the Solicitor-General leads as head of profession. Crown Law provides legal advice and representation services to the government in matters affecting the executive government, particularly in areas of criminal and public law. The services provided include matters covering judicial review of government actions, constitutional questions including Treaty of Waitangi issues, the enforcement of criminal law and the protection of revenue. Crown Law also oversees and administers the prosecution process in the criminal justice system, in particular, Crown Prosecutions before juries.

Crown Law's purpose is therefore to provide authoritative legal representation and advice to Government to enable it to achieve its objectives, act lawfully and discharge its constitutional duties, and provide general oversight of the conduct of public prosecutions including supervision and conduct of Crown prosecutions and appeals while being financially sustainable.

Within Crown Law and one of four teams in the broader Criminal group, the Public Prosecutions Unit (PPU) is focused on supporting the Solicitor General's oversight of public prosecutions. This work includes the oversight of the Crown Solicitor Network including robust financial management and ensuring all oversight mechanisms support on the ongoing delivery of high-quality Crown Prosecution services.
